

DEPARTMENT OF THE AIR FORCE
HEADQUARTERS AIR FORCE PERSONNEL CENTER
JOINT BASE SAN ANTONIO-RANDOLPH, TEXAS

Former Member Benefits and Identification Card Eligibility

A former member is an individual eligible to receive retired pay at age 60 for non-Regular service under Title 10, U.S.C. 1223.

Note: Unlike a member of the retired reserve awaiting pay at age 60 ("Gray Area" retiree), a former member chose to terminate his or her Reserve status rather than transfer to the retired reserve, and therefore, maintains no further military affiliation.

Identification Card Entitlements - Former Members Under Age 60:

Former Members Under Age 60: Former members under age 60 are entitled to the DD Form 2, United States Uniformed Services Identification Card (Reserve Retired) (Red) ID card, the same card as "Gray Area" retirees awaiting pay at age 60. Note: There is no separate or unique ID card to distinguish a former member from a "Gray Area" retired member.

Benefits and Privileges Authorized: The DD Form 2 (Reserve Retired) allows unlimited access to exchange and morale, welfare, and recreation activities, and also limited commissary privileges.

Documentation required to obtain the DD Form 2 (Reserve Retired). A notice of eligibility for Retired Pay at Age 60 and a discharge order.

ID Card Entitlement - Former Members Age 60 or Older and in Receipt of Retired Pay: Former members in receipt of retired pay at age 60 or older will be issued a DD Form 2765, Department of Defense/Uniformed Services Identification and Privilege Card.

Benefits and Privileges Authorized: The DD Form 2765 allows unlimited exchange; morale, welfare, and recreation; and commissary privileges. The card will also grant medical care in Uniformed Services Facilities on a space available basis and medical care in civilian facilities if not entitled to Medicare, Part A. Care in civilian facilities is not granted if the member is under 65, entitled to Medicare, Part A, but not enrolled in Medicare Part B supplemental insurance.

Documentation required to obtain the DD Form 2765 includes a retired pay order reflecting receipt of retired pay.

Eligible Dependents of Former Members Under Age 60:

Eligible dependents, will be issued the DD Form 1173-1, United States Uniformed Services Identification and Privilege Card.

Benefits and Privileges Authorized: The DD Form 1173-1 allows unlimited access to exchange, Morale; Welfare, and Recreation activities; and also limited commissary privileges if accompanied by a DD Form 2529, DOD Reserve Component Commissary Card.

Eligible Dependents of Former Members Age 60 or Older and in Receipt of Retired Pay:

Eligible dependents will be issued the DD Form 1173, Uniformed Services Identification and Privilege Card.

Benefits and Privileges Authorized: Unlimited exchange; morale, welfare, and recreation; and commissary privileges. The card will also grant medical care in Uniformed Services Facilities on a space available basis, and medical care in civilian facilities if not entitled to Medicare, Part A. Care in civilian facilities is not granted if the member is under 65, entitled to Medicare, Part A, but not enrolled in Medicare Part B supplemental insurance.
